

AN INVITATION INSPIRED BY ST ANDREW AND THE SCOTTISH FLAG

St Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland and the Scottish flag is his symbol, the saltire or X shaped cross. We often forget that the person behind our flag was one of Jesus' first followers, who died because of his Christian faith.

Inspired by these links, Barthol Chapel Kirk is marking St Andrew's day with a special service on Sunday 28th November, starting at our usual time of 9:45AM.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

The service will be led by Rev Matt Canlis from Methlick, and will also celebrate the beginning of the Advent Season leading up to Christmas. Matt offers the perspective of someone coming to the Church of Scotland afresh and has a real gift for explaining the relevance of the Christian faith today. Come and join us for a very special event!
